

At the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Bonn, the position of

W2 Professorship for Cardiovascular Intensive Care Medicine is to be filled on a permanent basis at the earliest opportunity.

The holder of the professorship is to represent the field of internal medicine and cardiology, especially cardiovascular intensive care medicine, in its full breadth within research, teaching, and medical treatment. The position is based at the Cardiac Center in Medical Clinic and Polyclinic II at University Hospital Bonn (Director: Prof. Dr. Georg Nickenig) and is linked to a consultant role.

We are looking for a proven expert in cardiovascular intensive care medicine with expertise in conducting clinical trials, documented by the acquisition of third-party funding and relevant publications. The independent conducting of interventional heart catheterization procedures is desirable.

The candidate is to strengthen and further develop the existing profile areas, especially the cardiovascular research focus, and research networks of the Faculty of Medicine. Excellent academic achievements and third-party funding as well as proven teaching skills are required.

The successful candidate must have completed a degree in medicine and specialist certification in internal medicine and cardiology, habilitation or equivalent academic achievements and teaching experience in accordance with section 36 of the University Law NRW.

The University of Bonn stands for diversity and equal opportunities. It is certified as a family-friendly university and has a dual career service. Its aim is to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are underrepresented and particularly support their careers. The University supports recruitment with the STEP program. Women with appropriate qualifications are strongly encouraged to apply. Applications are handled in accordance with the national equal opportunities law. Applications from suitable candidates with verified severe disabilities and persons with an equivalent status are also particularly welcome.

Qualified candidates are asked to apply via the Appointment Portal of the University of Bonn (<https://berufungsportal.uni-bonn.de/openProcedureList.do>). The application can be submitted in German or English by August 1, 2024.
